

Advanced Abstract Painting: Establishing a Purposeful Creative Practice

Course Start Date: 7/22/2019

Students Should Bring:

- their own acrylic paints (no oils please) with larger quantities white and black paints
- brushes
- any other tools that they might prefer for mark making
- heavy gel medium
- chip brushes
- a selection of canvases for the duration of the class. You will have 48x48 backing board to work off of, so no canvases larger than 48x48 (stretched or unstretched)

rolls of paper, black ink, golden fluid acrylics, mark making tools, gloss medium etc will be provided.

Advanced Abstract Painting: Establishing a Purposeful Creative Practice

Course Start Date: 7/22/2019

Students Should Bring:

- their own acrylic paints (no oils please) with larger quantities white and black paints
- brushes
- any other tools that they might prefer for mark making
- heavy gel medium
- chip brushes
- a selection of canvases for the duration of the class. You will have 48x48 backing board to work off of, so no canvases larger than 48x48 (stretched or unstretched)

rolls of paper, black ink, golden fluid acrylics, mark making tools, gloss medium etc will be provided.

Students Should Bring:

- their own acrylic paints (no oils please) with larger quantities white and black paints
- brushes
- any other tools that they might prefer for mark making
- heavy gel medium
- chip brushes
- a selection of canvases for the duration of the class. You will have 48x48 backing board to work off of, so no canvases larger than 48x48 (stretched or unstretched)

rolls of paper, black ink, golden fluid acrylics, mark making tools, gloss medium etc will be provided.